Consists of 4 parts:

Part A

Part B

Part C

Part D (January 1, 2006)

Let's Talk About Medicare . . .

---

Part A - Hospitalization

Inpatient treatment

Semi-private room and board

General nursing

Misc. services and supplies

Let's Talk About Medicare . . .

---

Part B - Medical Services

- In/out of hospital, outpatient hospital treatment, physician's services, supplies, therapy, diagnostic tests, durable medical equipment
- Blood
- Clinical Lab Services
- Approved home health care

Let's Talk About Medicare . . .

---

Part C - Medicare Advantage

- Expanded services for a fee through private health organizations, such as HMOs and PPOs
- You “assign” your Medicare benefit to the HMO or PPO, and are no longer in the Medicare system

Part A - Hospitalization

Part B - Doctor visits, tests, etc.

Part C - HMO/PPO approach

They all have various charges (deductibles, co-payments, and dollar limits) for which you are responsible

What deductibles, co-payments, and capped amounts?

Part A deductible of $952 for each hospitalization in different benefit periods

Part A co-payment of $238 per day after 60 days in a benefit period (up to $456 per day)

Part B deductible of $124 per year

Part C provider may have fees, co-payments, etc.

Let's Talk About Medicare . . .

Medicare does not typically pay the entire bill. The value usually “assigned” to an doctor’s exam, procedure, or test is 80%.

Medicare may then pay 80% of the 80%.

You owe the balance.

Unless . . .

Your physician or lab “accepts assignment”, and considers that 80% of 80% payment in full,

Or,

Let's Talk About Medicare Supplements

---

Unless . . . you have a Medicare Supplemental Insurance policy that guarantees to pay a Medicare-approved expense that Medicare does not pay in full.

---

“Med-Supps” come in a variety of flavors and sizes, offering minimal coverage (simply paying the Part A deductible) to the best coverage wherein you should not have to pay a penny out of your pocket.

However, plan design has been standardized by Medicare, so that a Plan B, or Plan C, or Plan F is the same irrespective of the insurance company offering it.

Let's Talk About Medicare Supplements

---

What to look for in a “Med Supp” company:

1. A known, dependable, long- term provider;
2. An “issue-age” company rather than an “attained-age” company;
3. Excellent premiums, and limited increases;
4. A knowledgeable advisor—as with anything important to you.
